EDITORIAL

Hi all

Life gets busy for all of us at times, so I apologise for no editorial provided and for the Wynpress being submitted late. To make up for it below is a helpful weather forecast. ☺ Have a lovely weekend.

Slots	Dave: Quiz evening at his house on the 25 th (today). Soup and rolls, bring your own drinks. Justin: Quiz night on 29 September at the earth fair market in Tokai (near Builders warehouse). Please start to get your teams of 10 together. They are looking for Prizes, so if you have anything to donate or any connections please contact Ruth or Justin. Are: Handed over a certificate for the best international project, awarded by District, to Alan. Mike: Reminder to pay Rotary fees (deadline is 30 Sep)
Guest Speaker	Linda Wilson from Pocket Money Market spoke about how she started this project from her garage. Linda was an Interactor and Rotaractor before working many years in the finance industry. She started this project two years ago when her daughter was 7 and needed to teach her the value of money. Now, every month she runs 1 workshop and 1 market per month around Cape Town for children between the ages of 3 and 16 can sell their hand made products. "Earn, learn and have fun". Next markets: Cape Vineyards (Thursday evenings), Behind Rodgers in Kommetjie (Saturdays). For more info; pocketmoneymarket.com
Swindle	Dave's name was pulled but no luck finding the right card. Attendance prize was R20.00. Prize money to date: R1060.
