HOW MUCH HAS CHANGED?

In 1998 the Readers Digest published a book titled 'Getaway's top 10'. The experts of Getaway put their heads together with the idea of selecting choice destinations within this richly diverse country of ours in order to expose such destinations and others to both local and foreign tourists. Due to the imagined difficulty in restricting them to 10 they decided to further divide them up into categories such as eateries, flea markets, farm stalls, picnic spots, night views and some others.

But for the tourist specifically there was a category 'Ten things a tourist must do in South Africa'

The questions for you the reader to consider are, do you agree with their list or do you have other destinations that have emerged during the period from 1998, and how many have you experienced? For your consideration here they are. By the way, no correspondence will be entered into.

RIDE THE CABLE CAR UP TABLE MOUNTAIN. The approximately 4 minute ride up the face of this internationally recognised mountain I don't think will be disputed by anyone, especially Capetonians.

VISIT A WINE ROUTE. The undeniable beauty of the Cape winelands stands up against any other on this globe (on the authority of the writer who has seen more than most).

HAVE A SEAFOOD FEAST. Here Muisbosskerm up the west coast at Lamberts Bay is specifically mentioned. (This can again be endorsed by the writer).

TRAVEL IN DELUXE ON THE BLUE TRAIN. Re-launched in 1997. There is now the competition of Rovos Rail at a different cost level of course, but for those that have had the experience of travelling to Pretoria or the Victoria Falls, a definite luxury.

DRIVE THROUGH ONE OF THE MOUNTAIN PASSES. The only one they list is the 'old' Bloukrans Pass near Natures Valley with its twisting, winding narrow road with a number of shady picnic spots. There are others that will be familiar to readers e.g. the Swartberg Pass.

GO TO A SOWETO SHEBEEN. The writer can't attest to this as it is the only one together with the Blue train not yet experienced.

AVOID THE KRUGER CROWD. Here they have suggested the then Kalahari Gemsbok National Park. Somewhat out of the way but at least one can also incorporate the Augrabies Falls.

HIKE A TRAIL. With over 1,500 Km's of National trails there are many to choose from. The writer's favourite is the Otter Trail between Storms River and Natures Valley but they list trails in the grandeur of the Drakensberg and the Mpumalanga escarpment.

SPEND A NIGHT IN AN AFRICAN VILLAGE. At Simunye Zulu Lodge near Melmouthe in Kwa-Zulu Natal one can experience food, a bed night and entertainment African-style.

GO RAFTING DOWN THE ORANGE RIVER. This 5 day, 57 Km., excursion down S.A's longest river is fully catered for by more than one operator between Noordoewer and Aussenkehr on the Namibian border.

So, if you can't tick off at least 7 out of the 10, start planning now!!

Tailpiece

"SAY THE MAGIC WORD."

Coincidence
OR Not ???

If...

A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

Equals...

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26

Then

K·N·O·W·L·E·D·G·E
11·14·15·23·12·5·4·7·5 = 96%

H·A·R·D·W·O·R·K
8·1·18·4·23·15·18·11 = 98%

Both are important, but fall just short of 100%

But

A·T·T·I·T·U·D·E
1·20·20·9·20·21·4·5 = 100%
