Cape Point and Boulders Beach lower rates for locals

by Ishani Chetty, Cape Town Etc

SANParks will offer South Africans the opportunity to visit both Cape Point and Boulders Beach at reduced prices as of 1 November, 2018, paired with a new online ticketing system.

The new prices, implemented at the start of next month will apply to South African nationals and SADC foreign nationals who can prove they hold official South African residency. For SA residents this means: SA ID book, SA ID card, Drivers licence or SA Passport must be produced upon arrival. For SADC members this means producing a passport on arrival at the gate.

Entry to Cape Point currently costs all entrants R147 and to Boulders beach R76 per adult (over 12 years)

Cape Point rates effective 1 November, 2018

Standard fee: Adult R303 and Child R152

SA National fee: R76 and Child R39

SADC fee: Adult R152 and Child R76

Boulders Beach rates effective 1 November, 2018

Standard fee: Adult R152 and Child R76

SA National fee: Adult R39 and Child R29

SADC fee: Adult R76 and Child R39

New IT Gate and online ticket system

The reason for the price decrease is part of a bigger plan of moving the Table Mountain National Park (TMNP) and West Coast National Park (WCNP) forward in technological advancements. A new Gate IT system was required for the implementation of the differential tariff system, improved control, reduced cash handling and efficient processing of visitors at the gates.

The new system will allow locals and visitors to purchase tickets for the TMNP and West Coast National Parks online. In order to purchase a ticket, patrons must visit the SANParks website, click on the 'Day tickets' tab and purchase their online barcodes to scan at the entrance of the park gates.

So, do head to Cape Point and Boulders Beach this upcoming festive season to experience Cape Town's beauty – at a discounted price!

Tailpiece

A Travel Agent looked up from his desk to see an old lady and an old gentleman peering in the shop window at the posters showing the glamorous destinations around the world.

The agent had had a good week and the dejected couple looking in the window gave him a rare feeling of generosity.

He called them into his shop, "I know that on your pension you could never hope to have a holiday, so I am sending you off to a fabulous resort at my expense, and I won't take no for an answer."

He took them inside and asked his secretary to write two flight tickets and book a room in a five star hotel.

Then, as can be expected, they gladly accepted, and were off!

About a month later the same old lady came in to his shop.

"And how did you like your holiday?" he asked eagerly.

"The flight was exciting and the room was lovely," she said.

"I've come to thank you, but one thing puzzled me. Who was that old bugger I had to share the room with?"
